McGILL WILL CONFER UPON HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS AT THE ROYAL VICTORIA COLLEGE TO-DAY

A Fitting Welcome By McGill To Canada's Royal Visitor At 12 Noon To-Day — Members Of the Faculty Will Appear in Academic Dress — Students Will Line Sherbrooke Street and Cheer H.R.H. As He Passes — All Lectures Suspended From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

To-day marks a red letter day in the history of McGill. For the first time in the history of the University, the heir to the British Throne will receive in person the degree of LL.D. from our Alma Mater. In order that students may have an opportunity of participating in the welcome to our Royal Visitor, all lectures in the University, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. have been cancelled.

In consequence of the limitations of space in the Convocation Hall of the R.V.C., it will be impossible to accommodate all the students who desire to be present, and so it has been decided that only seniors can be admitted to witness the conferring of the degree.

However, those who cannot gain admittance may have their place in welcoming His Royal Highness to McGill. It had been hoped that the students would be able to arrange some unique reception to the Prince, but after consultation with the authorities, this had to be abandoned.

Students are asked to line Sherbrooke street, and, as His Royal Highness passes along, give him such a greeting as only McGill can.

This is the only opportunity we shall have, as a university, of welcoming His Royal Highness, and so McGill men are urged to be out in full force to-day.

It is the express wish of Admiral Halsey that no special demonstration be entered into by the students. After the Prince has replied, the students present at the convocation are requested to give three hearty cheers, and follow this with the McGill yell.

TO VISIT McGILL TO-DAY.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1919.

OUR PRINCE---WELCOME

To-day McGill welcomes His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to her halls.

During the past five momentous years the deep-rooted imperialistic sentiments and sympathies of our Alma Mater have been broadened and strengthened. A real bond has been established between the new land and the old, and this tie is nowhere more real than between the educational institutions of Canada and those of England. McGill, in particular, has entered into this great affiliation which, in considerable measure, represents the realization of one of the cherished hopes of our late principal — Sir William Peterson.

The Prince of Wales comes to us, not only as the representative of the Royal Family and the heir to the throne of the British Empire, but he comes, as a young man, a student, and one who is interested in the duties, the pleasures, and the aims of modern young manhood . We are proud to welcome him as our prince, our future sovereign and as a fair type of British manhood.

THE CLIQUE SPIRIT

A letter appearing in the correspondence columns of yesterday's "Daily" makes rather cynical reference to the recent organization and re-organization of sectional clubs. While the writer evidences all the rabidness of the cynic, it cannot be denied that there is something in his cynicism.

We are the last persons to discourage activity of any kind, providing of course it is of a legitimate nature. In fact our attitude has ever been that there is, after everything has been taken into consideration, a deplorable lack of activity. However, though we have absolutely no objection to sectional organization along social lines, we are ready to recognize and do recognize the possibility of a development of the clique spirit. We are all students of one university and as such are members of one fraternity. When we reach the state in which sectionalism evidences itself in elections and when the clique spirit dominates the fraternal, then indeed we must consider at just what point the line is to be drawn.

In the meantime we are not disposed to regard clubs or even fraternities as incompatible with general fellowship. Unless we allow ourselves to become narrow and self-centred there is no reason why we should not have our smaller circles within the larger one.

THEOLOGS WILL HOLD MEETING

Reports Will Be Received From Khaki Theological Colleges Overseas.

The joint board of the four co-operating Theological Colleges affiliated to McGill University is inviting the members of the Bords and Senates to a meeting to be held at the David Morris Hall, 67 McTavish Street, on the evening of Monday, Novermer 3rd, at 8.15 o'clock, to hear reports, illustrated by lantern slides, from its representatives at the Khaki Theological College overseas,, namely Principal Rexford Professor Welsh and Professor Gifford. Dr. Frank D. Adams, acting Principal of McGill, will give a brief address on the work of the Khaki University. Dr. Symonds will speak as a representative of the Christian Citizenship Commission. Principal Harrison, of Macdonald College will give a report of the Summer School for Rural Ministers, held at St. Anne's last August, together with suggestions for its continuance. Advantage will also be taken of this occasion to extend a welcome to Dr. D. L. Ritchie, Principal-elect of the Congregational College. You are earnestly urged not only to attend this meeting yourself, but also to invite any of your friends who may be interested in the work of the Theological Colleges.

Prophesies of the Sphinx.

At last the awful day arrives;
The freshettes bowed with chains and gyves
Await auto-da-fe.
The dreaded sophomores appear:
With hateful glee they now draw near
To line the captives' way.

The groans unto the skies resound
Emitted from each figure bound;
Their clamour rends the air.
The tortures plied so thick and fast
Subdue the freshettes' pride at last
And for the worst prepare.

They watch them writhe in sorry plight,
Applauding at the horrid sight,
And tags in fiendish glee.
No little freshette may survive,
None make their exit hence alive,
Their fate—a mystery! ! !

McGILL WILL SEND TWENTY TO ASSEMBLY

Student Volunteers Will Hold Big Convention

AT DES MOINES.

Delegates From All Over the World Will Present Report.

Plans are now under way to have McGill send a representation of about twenty students to the eighth International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement, which will be held at Des Moines, Iowa, from Wednesday afternoon, December 31, 1919, and closing on the evening of January 4th, 1920.

These conventions are held every four years, and the increase of delegates present at each succeeding convention indicates their popularity. The first convention met in Cleveland, O., in 1891, with 650 delegates present. The last in 1914, in Kansas City, Mo., with a registration of 5,031. It is expected that fully 6,000 students will attend this year's convention, representing almost every university in all parts of the United States and Canada.

The purpose of this convention is to bring together at Des Moines representative delegations of students and professors from all important institutions of higher learning of Canada and the United States, and leaders of Christian enterprise throughout the world; to consider together the serious situations in all countries to-day, and the problems for evangelizing the non-Christian peoples; to gain inspiration and a vision of the world-wide missionary responsibilities of the Church; to unite in prayer and work for a great advance in the direction of extending the Kingdom of Christ among all nations.

Some of the ablest speakers of Christendom will address the convention at the five evening sessions. They will speak with first-hand knowledge of the conditions and movements described. The addresses will vividly picture and forcefully emphasized the moral, social and religious needs of the world to-day.

A part of each day will be devoted to a helpful consideration of questions concerning the student volunteer, the promotion and fostering of Missionary interests among all students, the responsibility resting upon the Church at home, and the challenge to students presenter by the great forward movements within the churches.

One afternoon will be devoted to simultaneous conferences on the great fields, i.e., China, India, Japan, Africa, Turkey, etc. On another afternoon there will be conferences for consideration of various types of missionary activity, i.e., medical, educational, industrial, literary, etc. Another afternoon will be devoted to conferences by boards and societies, thus affording the delegates an opportunity to meet the foreign missionary leaders of their own communions. Each of these afternoon conferences will have its own chairman and special programme.

Some of the most helpful and interesting times in the whole convention are the spontaneous and personally arranged meetings, which separate college delegations or groups of delegations have at free times during the day. A unique chance exists to meet men and women from every section and type of school, not only the United States and Canada, but from Europe, Asia and Latin America, to compare notes with them, and to form friendships that will last.

Not less than five hundred foreign students and leaders are expected in Des Moines. They will bring a great fund of first-hand up-to-date information not only on student life but on social, political, industrial and religious movements of significance.

The basis of representation to this convention is: Two student delegates from each institution and one additional student for each 100 students or fraction thereof above the first 200 students registered in the institution.

On this basis, McGill should have a representation of 25. She intends to send at least 20 if the committee carry out successfully the plans which it has now under way.

EVERY nation faces stern war-created obligations! Canada was promptly at the front for war. She will be none the less timely in the campaign for peace.

ITALIAN SWIMMING RECORD.

The Italian swimming champion, Massa, recently established a new Italian swimming record in covering 100 metres in 67s. without a plunge. At the meeting at which this feat was performed held in Eecco Lake, Robert Blasich, of Fiume, won the 400 metres in 6m. 2 4-5s. against 15 other competitors who were the survivors of 64 popular meetings held in different Italian towns.

There are 463 applicants for twenty-eight vacancies for head-schoolmasters under the Kent Education Committee.

CANADA needs our money now just as much as for war. Cash is required even more after the fire to build anew. And Canada only borrows it from us at a good rate of interest.

MEMBERSHIP OF BOOK CLUB IS INCREASED

Great Loss Experienced In Death Of Mr. Gould.

MAGAZINES POPULAR.

Members Urged To Make Use Of Their Right Suggestion.

On Tuesday afternoon, October 21, the University Book Club held its fourteenth annual meeting in the University Library, Rev. Dr. Welsh presiding.

The hon. secretary's report showed the largest membership on record, with a steady increase of new names and very few resignations, almost all from persons leaving town.

The one great loss that the club had experienced was the death of Mr. Gould, without whose co-operation and sympathy it could hardly have existed. During the absence of the chairman on overseas service, he had presided over the meetings of the committee and had helped the club by every means in his power. It would miss for a long time the Librarian's gracious courtesy and his knowledge of books.

In reading, there had been a natural turning away from war records and a renewed desire for writings more purely literary. Fiction was always in request, and the two Art Magazines, "Colour" and "The Studio" had proved popular. Members were now able to reserve books by cards placed at the library desk.

The greatly increased cost of books has made the committee's task of selection more difficult, and members were urged to use their right of suggestion, so that it could be seen what books were most wanted. The committee aimed at buying what was most wanted. The committee aimed at buying what was most popular without lowering the standard of a University Book Club.

The members of the library staff were thanked for their interest and assistance, for it was felt that the character of the club was largely due to their personal efforts. Every year the club was filling more the need for which it was formed.

The hon. treasurer, Professor T. Ridler Davies, showed in his report an income of $763.79, most of which had been spent on boks.

It was proposed and agreed that Miss Young, of the library staff, be asked to represent the librarian on the committee until Dr. Lomer arrived, and that afterwards a by-law be passed by which Miss Young could sit on the committee without her retiring causing a vacancy. The librarian of McGill is, by resolution of the Corporation of the University, a permanent ex-officio member of the University Book Club committee.

There was no vacancy on the committee, and the present executive was unanimously re-elected.

CONCERT IN PRES. COLLEGE.

The spirit of fellowship was felt last night in the Presbyterian College when a concert was given by the freshmen to the rest of the students.

The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, recitations, quartets and speeches. All of which go to prove that talent is not lacking among the men.

A surprise came after the programme when the freshmen treated the gathering to refreshments in the lunch room.

A few more songs were sung after supper and an enjoyable evening came to a close with a vote of thanks proposed by the president, Mr. De Witt Scott.

LAW '21 HOLD MEETING.

There was a meeting held this morning of Law '21, at which G. B. Foster presided. The main business was the election of representatives to the Annual Board. Those elected were E. Genest and A. I. Smith.

The apointment of G. B. Foster and John Gallery to the Junior Dance Committee also took place. The meeting was then adjourned.

JUNIORS AT MACDONALD CELEBRATE

Year Made Good Showing In College Sports.

WON TROPHIES.

Convivial Evening Spent By Those Present.

They filled them up and drank them dry. When the Juniors do things they do them in proper style. "Come on," yelled their president, as he scampered up and down the corridors and assembled his flock. "Let us wet the cups" and drink to our laurels.

Although they failed to achieve as much individual merit as did the Sopra and Seniors, they easily carried off two of the sups given for interclass competition. A class affair undoubtedly, but desiring representation from other years, they invited the presidents of the various associations and sister classes to join them.

"Let us drink to our guests," said their level-headed president after they had assembled and filled the cups. "But," piped a voice from the gathering, "if we drink to our guests, what will be left for them?"

"Then, let the guests be the first to partake." It was quite obvious, however, that the latter method might lead to disaster, should the "guests have lived up to the name which they had established for themselves in years previous, the poor Juniors would go dry.

Luckily, however, the supply was more ample than it had appeared to be, and as a result everybody had "all they could carry" before the night was over. It might also be mentioned that cakes and smokes played an important part.

It was quite evident, however, that either the smokes, cakes or drinking fluid happened to be of a musical tendency, and its appearance became manifest at a very early hour of the evening. With each circle of the cups, christened "The Relay," "Tug of War" and the "Little Brown Jug," the music increased and those of the "fairer sex" their peaceful slumbers at the word of across the campus were awakened from "One Keg of Beer Between Four of Us," "Little Brown Jug," and other appropriate songs.

Chemical reactions which occurred were very conducive to the development of recitations, dancing and such ideas as "Another Little Drink Wouldn't Do Us Any Harm." Certain chemicals also acted violently upon the studious aspirations of certain individuals who were intently examining Leucocytes with ginger ale bottles for microscopes.

The impromptu speeches and familiar songs helped make the evening a most enjoyable one for all present, the closing yells could be heard all around the campus and served to illustrate the enjoyable evening which will make history for Agriculture '21.

ELECTIONS OF OFFICERS.

Vacancies Filled in Athletics.

At a meeting of the men students the following officers were elected:

Manager of Basketball Team—Sutherland '22.

Manager of Baseball Team—H—. J. Evans.

Rink Manager—Jack Pewtress '22.

Assistant Rink Manager — Cooper '23.

"Uncle" Sutherland is a very prominent figure in athletics at Macdonald. He already holds the position of manager of the Rugby squad and fills the bill well. Under his management we are looking forward to some real games this winter.

No more suitable man could be selected as manager of the baseball than "Harry" Evans. Harry is a bye-word in athletics, and it is still remembered that he once came out of hospital after an attack of fever and pitched against the Guelph team, defeating one of the hardest teams that ever played indoor baseball.

We are all looking forward to some good skating this year, with "Jack" Pewtress to look after the rink.

BASKETBALL FOR SCIENCE GIRLS

What is the matter with the Science girls? They're all right! Oh, yes; you bet! But what about their basketball team? The Household Sciencers have been allotted Tuesday afternoons, from 4 to 5.30 o'clock for basketball practice, but few and far between are those who have turned out to practise. So far, there have been five practices, and it is doubtful whether and Science girls have turned out to all five, while the Model Teachers are practising steadily and preparing to wipe the Home-makers off the face of the map, so far as basketball is concerned. True, there have been a few who have been endeavoring to make the Science Basketball Team what it is expected to be, but they are scarce. So, come on, Science! Show your pep! Turn out next Tuesday, one and all, and let them see that you can hold your own, anywhere, at any time!

NOTES.

The morning train bore the Section B Model Teachers, accompanied by the Dean of the School for Teachers, to Montreal. They spent the day in practice teaching and observation of the regular teachers in Alexandra, Lansdowne and Dufferin schools, arriving home by supper time, after a very successful and enjoyable day.

Owing to the celebration of the very successful Sophomore Chicken Feed on Wednesday night, it was necessary to postpone the life-saving class, which was scheduled to begin on that evening, but Miss Brackett wishes to announce that henceforth the class will take place every Wednesday night at 7 o'clock.

"Coming events cast their shadows before" — so it would seem, when one catches a glimpse of the preparations for the Hallowe'en Masquerade to be held on Saturday evening at the Women's Residence. "What are you going as?" is the main question, and, on the whole, the chief topic of conversation is the said masque ball, which, if preparations may be taken as indications, promises to be a huge success.

SOCIAL EVENT.

The reception room of the Women's residence was most artistically decorated with mums and Hallowe'en decorations at the tea-hour yesterday, when Mrs. Ilsley, Dean of Residences, entertained the lady teachers on the Macdonald staff. About twenty guests were present.

On Thursday afternoon, in the Nature Study period, Mr. E. McOuat had Sections A, C and D teachers on a leaf-gathering expedition.

Great are the preparations for the visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales next Sunday afternoon. Everything will be spotless and shining, if the efforts of the Home-makers prove as successful in the remaining few days as at the beginning of the week. Programme will appear in to-morrow's issue.

SOCCER NOTES.

The senior soccer team had a good stiff workout yesterday in anticipation of a game with the St. Anne's Hospital team on Saturday afternoon. There is a lot of good material to work with this year. What we want now is team play. A little snappy combination among the forwards will make a wonderful improvement. All together boys, use your head and feet to make this a go.

BASKETBALL AND BASEBALL.

Indoor baseball and basketball will soon be the main features in sports, and already preparations are in order for an interesting season. Prospects for good teams are encouraging, for a number of the old boys are back from service overseas and will be able to carry on the good work of former seasons.

Class teams should get busy soon, for there is any amount of new material around this year, and which will prove useful in time. Plenty of spirit and competition among class teams serve to build up a good college team.

The following is the inter-class schedule for the first period:

Nov. 13—

Sophs. vs. Juniors.. .. .. Baseball

Nov. 20—

Seniors vs. Sophs. .. .. .. Basketball

Nov. 27—

Juniors vs. Freshmen .. .. Baseball

Dec. 4—

Sophs. vs. Freshmen.. .. Basketball

NEW TYPE FRESHMAN CLASS.

While the Sophomores were revelling in this annual "chicken spread" and enjoying the unique society of the ladies, the Freshmen seized the opportunity afforded by their absence, to indulge in a little frivolous bed-dumping. It was a glorious opportunity, freshmen. A chance in a thousand. Seldom will you find the strategic Sophs. leaving their lair so unguarded.

The thrilling part of the apology to the Sophomores was in putting the beds together again. This marks a long slip towards a modern civilization. That is our purpose at Macdonald and everyone is proud of your move, which creates a precedent undreamed of before. Versatility must henceforth be our attitude to our fellow man, and you are to be congratulated upon showing this charming quality to such a high degree.

MACDONALD VETERANS' RIFLE CLUB.

The returned men of Macdonald wishing to keep themselves upto the mark in the art of shooting have formed a Rifle Club.

They propose holding a practice at least once a week in the miniature range in the basement of the main building. There are a number of the old-time "marksmen" who have since made a few hits, and who are already looking forward to a competition with the staff Rifle Club at an early date.

Be prepared for the first practice; buy your ammunition and targets at the book store. This is an excellent opportunity to become proficient in a sport which does not receive the attention it should. It requires more concentration and self-control to shoot accurately than is required in most other games.

SOLDIERS' CIVIL RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Macdonald Has Fine Course In Agriculture For Returned Men.

Re-establishment work in agriculture was organized at the college December 1918, and during the past months much progress has developed along this line. Macdonald was chosen for this work, because of its central location and complete equipment for instructional work in agriculture.

At first the scope of the work was small and the attendance few in numbers, but it has grown gradually until to-day 90 ex-soldiers are enrolled in this work.

The present staff is composed of Macdonald graduates, all of whom have seen army service. The supervisor is C. E. Boulden, B.Sa., who is also instructor in Animal Husbandry and Farm Management. The other instructors are: R. J. M. Reid, Horticulture; J. C. Moynan, Poultry and Cereals; T. H Biggar, Visiting Officer. Members of the regular college staff also assist in the work.

As in other branches of vocational work for soldiers the courses are intended for disabled men and minors. The courses given are: 1—An extended course covering most of work of the first college year. 2—Special courses of three months for men doing the practical work on their own farms. The equipment for this work includes small stables equipped similarly to a small farm, poultry houses, etc., also garden and field lapouts together with all the general farm implements. The work includes the general farm practices with special attention in live stock, poultry, horticulture, agriculture and cereals. Class room lectures are given in all the work supplemented by practical work carried on in the various departments so that the men are able to get the most out of training in a comparatively short time.

GIFTS TO ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The following letter has been received from Dr. Harrison:

President Athletic Association,
Macdonald College.

Dear Sir:

I have arranged with the Bursar's office to place $300.00 to the credit of the Association, on which you can draw on for the purpose of obtaining coaches or instruction in any form of athletics, provided only that opportunity is given to all students in residence who are medically fit and able to take athletic exercise or participate in games.

(Signed)
F. C. HARRISON,
Principal.

This fills a great need at a time when most needed. The college has been badly in need of suitable supervision in athletics, especially in the gymnasium and senior team work. It is hoped that a coach will be secured very shortly to carry on this work. This is all the more appreciated coming from our Principal as it did unexpectedly.

HALLOWE'EN.

To-day being Halloween, the president of the House Committee in the Men's Residence wishes to announce that study hour will cease at 9 p.m. All noise in or around the buildings must cease at midnight. The men students must confine their festivities to their own side of the campus.

AMERICAN CLUB HOLDS A SMOKER

The American Club held a most succesful smoker in the Common Room of the Union last evening. There were many present at this, the second gathering of the year. This get-together was conclusive evidence of the growing co-operation and enthusiasm among the American students, and serves well to show that the programme for the session is receiving the hearty support of all.

At first a short business meeting was held, because of the necessity for completing the plans for the Thanksgiving dinner. It is to be held on the American Thanksgiving day, Nov. 27th. This dinner is an annual function of the club and has always met with the enthusiastic support of those of the students and faculty who come from the States. It was decided to hold it at the Windsor Hotel, as has been the custom in the past.

A committee consisting of two representatives from each faculty was appointed, and these men will approach all fellow students from across the line, telling them about the club and its plans. The following are the members of this committee:

Medicine—Lifshin and Sheets.

Science — Wickenden and Livingstone.

Arts and Law—Orlando and Karnes.

After the business was completed the social part of the evening commenced. Refreshments were ample and tasty, and Mr. Orlando entertained the gathering with numerous southern songs.

BOTH TEAMS STRONG FOR SAT.'S GAMES

Seniors Will Carry Twenty-Four Men.

BULLETIN SERVICE.

Both the senior and second teams were out for the finishing touches yesterday afternoon, and the smoothness with which their plays and trick formations were run through reflects great credit on Coach Shaughnessy and Captain Montgomery. The trick plays and signals are down to a high degree of perfection, and nothing seems to be lacking in the line or the half-line in the way of smoothness and team-harmony. The seniors are in particularly fine condition, and all the old standbys are on the line-up for the Varsity game except Norm. Williamson, who is probably out for the season, due to injuries received in the game against Queen's. The men work well together, and the system that has been followed by "Shag," namely that of keeping a good-sized squad of substitutes on hand, all of whom are fully competent to step into the place of any of the players who are out of condition, makes the chances of success more secure. The back-line is composed of two alternate shifts, both of which are equally familiar with the signals and the positions. The regular half-line is to be "Bee" Anderson, John Gallery and Cyril Flanagan, with Pringle Seath as flying-wing. The spare half-line is composed of Heney, Wilson and Lafolley, with Weiser as flying-wing. Besides this spare half-line, the team is bringing up six additional players to act on the line if they are needed.

Undoubtedly this system is a good one; it has shown itself such in the previous games this year, and has worked well at all the practices, including the one yesterday where subs. were worked in without any appreciable difference being felt. "Monty" has the signals down to a high degree of perfection, and is a fine manager for such a team. The line balances out well, with such men as Gilhooly, Dul Ross and Ambridge alongside one another. They are hard men for Varsity to make a hole through. Flanagan has all that is to be desired of a punter, and is filling that position most capably. Punch Parkins gets through with all the pep that anyone could want, and is a mighty hard man to stop, once he makes up his mind to "get that ball." "Boo" Anderson is steady and hard-working as ever, and is most certainly a very valuable asset for the team. Gallery is all to the good, if he can only keep up the pep and put all he has into the game. It's a fine team, without a doubt, and unless the Toronto men are marvels, our men's hard work and fine condition is not going to be for nothing. The team has decided to travel by day, and they accordingly leave to-morrow morning for Toronto. The actual number of players is twenty-four men, and they are to be accompanied by Col. Elder and a goodly number of enthusiasts, including Billy Nicholson, the president of the Council. More are to follow on the evening train, and, all told, there ought to be a good representation from McGill out to boost the team to win.

Something of special importance to those who are unable to go to Toronto to enjoy the game is the fact that the "Daily" has gone to the trouble of securing a private wire from the Toronto grand stand direct to McGill. Complete details of the game are to be wired down to the "Daily," and the latter will post a series of bulletins in front of the Union Saturday afternoon. It is expected that great crowds will avail themselves of the splendid opportunity thus afforded, and will do the next best thing to seeing the game, will know all its details from a reliable source, and that promptly.

The line-up for the game is as follows:

Seath	Flying Wing	Box
Anderson	Half-back	Holmes
Flanagan	Half-back	Breen
Gallery	Half-back	Sullivan
Montgomery	Quarter	Duncan
Parkins	Outside Wing	Pearlman
Gilhooley	Outside Wing	Chotz
Cope	Mid. Wing	Carew
Ross	Mid. Wing	Wallace
Ambridge	Inside	Beatty
Notman	Inside	English
Lifshin	Scrimmage	Montgomery
Bailey	Scrimmage.	Shoebottom
Timmins	Scrimmage	Birdsall

McGill Subs.—Heney, Wilson, Lafolley, Weiser, Forbes, Allan, Kern, Wallace, Nicholson, Mallison.

Officials—Sliter and Malcolm, of Queen's.

The McGill Seconds, who had a short workout against the Senior men are shaping up well for their game Saturday against R.M.C. at Kingston; they work well, and are close seconds to their seniors in all aspects of the game. They are in fine condition to meet R. M. C., and ought to bring the red-and-white well to the fore in their league.

SCOTCH TWEEDS

From the Land of the Heather

WHEN we say that these are genuine Scotch Tweeds—imported by Fit-Reform directly from Scotland—haven't we said all that can be said about the sturdiest and—to many men—the most likable Suits and Overcoats that can be made?

And these new Tweeds have gained added charm from being shaped into Suits and Overcoats by the master hands of the Fit-Reform tailors.

If you have a preference for Tweeds, either in Suits or Overcoats, let us show you the novelties we have imported in genuine Scotch Tweeds.

FIRST DEBATE OF YEAR WENT TO SOPHS.

"Lit." Season Opened Last Night

ON PUBLIC UTILITIES.

Dr. Fryer Proved a Witty and a Popular Judge.

The Literary and Debating Society received a very good "send off" on its season's programme at the Arts Freshman - Sophomore debate last evening. A comparatively large and an interested audience was on hand to hear the two teams debate the subject of municipal ownership of public utilities, and the debaters really proved highly interesting.

The first speaker of the evening was Avison, of second year, as leader of the affirmative. He maintained the public utilities should be owned by municipal governments, because the commodities of life which public service corporations supply are so vitally necessary to the public good. That private ownership is objectionable because its first object is gain, and because under it, no complaint or public opinion can avail anything.

Fenson then took the floor as first speaker for the negative. He asserted at the outset that it was practically important to get capable men to work in municipal offices, because of several disadvantages, such as the indefiniteness of the future and the interference of incompetent councils. He also pointed out the futility of municipal ownership when interurban traffic was necessary in the case of tramways utilities.

Cousins, the second speaker for second year, ably supported his colleague's arguments, and advanced several new points, the chief of which were that municipal ownership would mean a reduction in salaries and profits, and a consequent lowering of public expenses and taxation.

The last speaker, Walter, then took the floor. His address was perhaps the most carefully constructed and most logical of the evening. He claimed the impossibility of attempting publicity and probe in municipal affairs, and that the tendency to public ownership brought with it socialism and the decay of individual initiative and incentive.

Avison's rebuttal was then delivered. It was very much to the point, and was perhaps the biggest factor in influencing the judgment in the favor of the affirmative.

Dr. Fryer, the judge of the evening, proved very popular, and his address was received with high approval. He gave some friendly advice to each debater, showing them their weak and strong points, then delivered judgment in favor of the second year.

The meeting then closed after some discussion had taken place and refreshments had been served.

The executive of the "Lit." feel highly encouraged by the obvious enthusiasm of last night's meeting, and by the many assurances of support received after its close. They now feel assured that the extensive programme which they have planned will be highly successful, and the "Lit." will again take the place among the University activities of being second to none in importance and prominence, that it held before the war.

Watch the "Daily" for an announcement of the season's programme. It will include your faculty and your class.

BASKETBALL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

An enthusiastic crowd of basketball men turned out for the first meeting of the Basketball Club. The first business was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

Hon. President—L. C. Montgomery.
President—W. M. Bourke.
Vice-President—R. H. Foss.
Sec.-Treas.—S. H. Davis.
Publicity Agent and Reporter—G. F. McCarthy.

After the election of officers, it was decided that Inter-faculty Basketball should be played this year. With a team in the Intercollegiate League, and also two teams in the Montreal City and District League, basketball will certainly be one of the most popular winter sports this season. It was also proposed that basketball should be made a major sport and that this should be placed before the Athletic Association at their next meeting.

McGILL TO HAVE CONVENTION REP.

A small but representative meeting was held in Strathcona Hall last night to hear an address by Mr. Robertson, Student Volunteer Secretary for the National Council of the Y.M.C.A., on the approaching Student Missionary Convention.

Mr. Robertson briefly outlined the purpose of the convention to be held in Des Moines, the latter part of this year, and emphasized the opportunity and privilege of attending such a convention. Eight thousand students are expected, representing all the universities of the United States and Canada, and Mr. Robertson expressed his pleasure that McGill was making plans to send her full quota.

After Mr. Robertson had spoken, Mr. MacKay outlined the plans to raise money for McGill's delegation and for selecting the delegates. A large committee is now engaged on this matter and hope to soon have churches, societies and individuals interested in the convention.

ARTS UNDERGRAD.

A meeting is called for this morning at 11 a.m. sharp, for all the Arts Undergrad Executive men, and also the various representatives to the Dinner and Entertainment Committee. The executive meetings to date have seen almost all the latter committee in absentie. As a smoker is to be held at a very close date, and as the responsibility of making the smoker a huge success is a joint one, the committee men are asked to remember that they have got to do their share in arranging for this smoker. Class presidents, get your rep. to the committee out to this meeting, or else come yourself and explain their absence.

COUNCIL HAVE ARRANGED FOR FIRST DANCE

Informal Affair On Friday Next.

LIMIT — 150 COUPLES.

The social season at McGill will begin on Friday evening, Nov. 7, when the Students' Council is holding the first of a series of important dances to take place from time to time during the winter. It will be remembered that those given last year under the auspices of the Council proved successful from every standpoint and no doubt those which have been arranged for the present session will meet with the approval of every undergraduate.

Already all arrangements have been made for Friday's fixture. One of the best jazz bands in the city has been secured to furnish the music, and competent caterers will handle the refreshments.

The number of tickets to be sold will be limited. The committee have decided that 150 couples is the maximum and not one will be sold beyond that number. This will insure a pleasant time for the dancers, as the usual crush will be thus eliminated.

The sale of tickets will begin on Monday morning, the 23rd, at the Union, and will be open till the number mentioned above are sold. Students will therefore save themselves from possible inconvenience by securing theirs early, as absolutely no exception will be made to the above rule. The price will be as usual, $1.50 per couple. It is understood that the tickets will be reserved exclusively for students, and each man must register in the book provided for the purpose at the Porter's desk in the Union before securing his ticket.

WRESTLING A LEADER WITH B.W. & F. CLUB

First Practise Held In the Union.

FORTY - FIVE MEMBERS.

More Heavyweights Needed —Mr. Smith Is Back As Instructor.

Yesterday afternoon the opening wrestling practise of the B., W. and F. Club was held in the ball room of the Union. As was expected, many more would be wrestlers and wrestling enthusiasts turned up than had expressed their willingness at the last meeting to attend these practices.

When Mr. Smith called the roll some forty five men answered their names which means that there was a larger number out than there has been for many years. In the hundred and twenty-five pound class there are about eight men, while the majority fall in the hundred and thirty and hundred and forty-five class. In the hundred and fifty-eight or middleweight class there is also much good material. However, so far only five men have showed up for the heavyweight class and the majority of these will fall back to the middleweight class after a few weeks training. From these figures it will be seen that the club is unnecessarily short in the heavyweight class, and so students whether they know anything about wrestling or not are requested to turn out, and to those who fall within the heavyweight class a special request is sent so that the need may be filled.

Mr. Smith called the men who fell into these various sections to their allotted parts of the floor, and after they had thrown off their coats and vests and taken off their collars and ties the class fell to do a bit of exercise known as hand wrestling. Owing to the fact that many of the fellows were wearing boots instead of their gym. shoes and as the mats had not yet arrived, this practice was called off after it had been going but a few minutes.

For the benefit of those who were not at the practise it may be said that the dressing room is in the basement below the secretary's office and will be open before the next practise. The showers are in rooms opening off from the dressing rooms, and towels will be provided. As yet there are no lockers, but it is hoped that this convenience will be provided after the close of the Rugby season.

DIOCESANS HELD ANNUAL MEETING

On Wednesday evening the Diocesan College held its annual "Freshmen's Supper." This event, which has developed into a regular custom, is primarily a welcome to first year students. In addition to this, it provides an excellent opportunity for an informal exchange of opinions between the faculty and the undergraduates.

After refreshments had been served, Mr. Bennett, the president, called on Mr. N. E. Peterson to propose the toast to the King. Other toasts were offered, and replies made, in the following order:

"The Church"—Dr. Howard.
Dr. E. S. Rexford.
"The Faculty"—Mr. A. V. Litchfield.
Dr. G. Abbott-Smith.
"The Alumnae"—Mr. G. M. Cameron.
Rev. F. L. Whitley.
"The Freshmen"—Mr. E. F. Bennett.
Mr. N. Egg.

The programme following the supper and its accompanying toasts held the interest of the entire student body. This item included the instruction of the Freshmen in certain very necessary subjects, the oath that bound them in admitted subjection to their seniors, and, above all, their reception by the student body, through certain rites of initiation sacred to all colleges.

VICTORY LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS

Word has been received from Victory Loan Headquarters that they desire that all subscriptions coming from the students or staff of McGill University should be credited to the McGill team. Every effort is being made to make the total of subscriptions for McGill as large as possible and everyone should endeavor to sell as many bonds as they can. Students, whose parents are desirous of subscribing to the loan, should give their names to members of their faculty teams in order that the amounts may be added to the total.

If anyone has not been approached by a canvasser and wishes to subscribe he may do so by applying at the secretary's office, in the Union, at five o'clock this evening, when the Captain and Secretary of the McGill team will be there to give information. Canvassers are asked to turn in their subscriptions to the team captains and, when this is not possible, to turn them into the secretary, in the Union, at five o'clock. Captains will turn in their subscriptions daily.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1919.

ARE YOU INTERESTED ?

The McGill football team meets the University of Toronto fourteen to-day in what is bound to be a crucial test. The U. of T. has always been able to put a strong aggregation on the field, and invariably she has made a serious bid for the championship. This year the Blue and White display all the strength of former years and they are confident of carrying off the inter-collegiate honors. McGill, on the other hand, has always been a keen and much-to-be-considered rival, and the showing which her fourteen has heretofore this season made justifies a good deal of optimism and confidence on our part. At the same time, however, ther is no good disguising the fact the team which will wear the Red and White is not as strong in some respects as it might be and that while so far this season they have not suffered defeat, to-day's game is on foreign soil and against a team which has a similar season's record up to date. In short, so much depends upon this game that neither team can afford to take any chances.

Unfortunately we cannot attend en masse and accord our fourteen the support which means so much in a pinch. This being impossible and the fact that the student body will be denied the privilege of witnessing what promises to be one of the best games of the season, has induced the Students' Council to arrange for direct telegraphic communication between the scene of the struggle and the McGill Union. By this means every student at McGill can follow the play as it progresses. Needless to say this accommodation has entailed considerable expenditure of effort and money which will only be justified if the undergraduate body takes full advantage of it. Every man in the University should have interest enough in the struggle going on at Toronto to want the first possible news of its progress or outcome. It is not unreasonable to expect that there will be a demonstration of college spirit on such an occasion. The least we can do is to evidence some interest in a contest which involves the honor of our University.

NO GROUNDS FOR ENGLISH RUGBY

English Rugby enthusiasts will be sorry to hear that the Executive elected at a recent meeting, has met with little success in their efforts to reinstate the club amongst McGill's athletic activities.

There is no doubt that the club, once re-established would receive the necessary recognition and support from the authorities. This is apparent from the attitude of the Athletic Association. But it is in the matter of grounds that the committee has been brought to a standstill in their efforts. The use of the Stadium for practice is impossible, nor can permission be secured for the use of the Old Campus. The only grounds available are somewhere in the suburbs, and would mean an hour's journey before each practice, a proceeding, which with the shortening days, is of course out of the question.

It was not thought necessary to call a meeting to report this failure to those interested, and students who attended the former meeting and elected the committee are asked to accept this as a report, sad though it may be, of the situation.

The executive further strongly urge that later in the season this matter be again taken up by those interested in the game, and that a standing committee be then appointed to take such steps as may seem necessary towards insuring for English Rugby a place in next season's athletic activities.

MEETING OF LAW UNDERGRAD.

A meeting of the Law Undergraduate Society was held yesterday morning for the purpose of discussing certain items of business effecting the faculty. Among other things the question of supporting the University Literary and Debating was considered with the result that A. P. Griggs and A. Terroux were appointed as members of the Advisory Committee of the "Lit." After a variety of discussion the meeting adjourned.

QUIPPS

UNCLE SALT BASIN—THE FRESH WHO WRITE.

Why is it, pray, that when a guy comes up to Old McGill he has to start right in and try to write like Stratford will? Can anyone explain to me the reason for this thing? I must admit that I can't see their purpose, but, by jing, it's we poor ginks who have to sit and read their awful bosh and sigh and draw a clammy mitt across our foreheads—gosh! If you could view the piles of junk that crowd our office floor your hearts would bleed for poor old Unc—there's poems by the score, and essays, too, and brilliant skits on persons of renown — the product of some freshman wits—but I must give the crown to R.V.C., the freshettes there each year get out their pens and write until you'd really swear they'd brains as bright as men's. For every co-ed that's alive has some poetic fire—and while to see some sense I strive I can't help but admire the patience that these folks have got to keep on writing still, when all their efforts come to naught and our waste-basket fill.

Well, I suppose we all were young and shot off verse that way, and fondly to the notion clung that we'd be great some day. But this I say, tho' with such fish I'll never interfere, when they concoct some tasty dish of poems quaint and queer it is my deep and fervent wish they wouldn't send it here!

NOTICE—IMPORTANT!

We are authorized to announce that there is no truth whatsoever in the report that the University authorities have contemplated hiring Wm. Hohenzlern, champion wood-cutter of Central Europe, to commence work on the new residences. Better wait till Mederic goes out of office and employ home labor—anyhow we'd back the Old Grey Mare to chew down more forests than Wm. H. ever saw in his life, or sawed.

POET SCORNER.

(By Pyrotechnic Pete.)

At last, dear friends, at immense expenditure of time and trouble, we have been able to secure the services of the famous Futurist poet, Lou Nattie. During his waking hour, this prominent bard (bard from all the best clubs in town) will delight you with strains (and sprains) of sweet music, and we expect letters of approval to come showering in upon us in the near future. Tell us what you think of Lou's efforts, kind readers, it'll give you relief, while not bothering us in the slightest.

N.B.—Don't invest in any spoiled fruit as the poet is far off, out of range.

Here is a bright little fragment dashed off by the singer before breakfast:

A stude once prepared for a quiz
By imbibing a pint of Gin Fizz;
When his friends cried, "Insane!"
He replied "Guess again,
For the test Fizzyology is!"
—Lou Nattie.

After writing this eh swallowed a pint and a half of cold sulphuric acid sprinkled with thumb-tacks, and with steam pouring from his ears went to bed for another day's sleep.

BRITISH TRADE.

Speaking optimistically on the prospects of British trade, Sir Auckland Geddes has declared that Germany can not hope to rank among the great manufacturing nations of the world for months, and perhaps for years to come. He also contended that owing to the high cost of living and increased costs of production, Japan will not be able to compete successfully with Great Britain in those superior articles of manufacture which have given British products such an international reputation. It is a striking fact, however, that the value of Japanese imports into India have tremendously increased until to-day they represent practically one-fifth of India's import trade. The official figures for 1918-19 show Japanese imports into that country of $111,666,665, as compared to $61,666,65 in 1917-18, and $44,166,665 in 1916-17.

RARE POSTAGE STAMPS.

The tenth meeting of the philatelists at Nymegen was accompanied by the exhibition of extensive and interesting collections of priceless money value. Among them was a St. Anthony edition and a complete Austrian, the Mercurius Journal stamp (1850-1856) and a specimen of the offical air mail between Lemberg and Vienna deserving specail mention.

Fire broke out in the S.S. Shropshire, lying in Yorkhill Basin, and damage estimated at £200 was done.

A detachment of the 326th Brigade Royal Field Artillery, which is about to be demobilised, was entertained to luncheon by the Corporation of Glasgow.

M. Poincare, President of the French Republic, will visit Glasgow on November 13, when he will be received at the University and made an honorary burgess of the city.

The Rev. D. G. H. Morrison received congratulations and gifts from Wellington United Free Church on the occasion of his semi-jubilee in the ministry.

When a dollar is not a dollar

IN normal times, when the price of an article increases we can usually either do without it or substitute something else.

In extraordinary times, like the present, when the price of nearly everything is higher than usual, we have no choice; we MUST buy essentials, even though our dollars will not buy what used to be a dollar's worth.

The best article of which the dollar will buy a full 100 cents' worth—even in these days when the power of a dollar to buy almost anything else has dwindled to 55 or 60 cents—is a share in VICTORY LOAN 1919.

Every dollar you invest in VICTORY LOAN, 1919, will buy a full dollar's worth of prime security, because the Government will pay you back at the maturity date, when in all probability commodity prices will have again reached a more normal level, a full $100 in gold for every $100 you invest now.

And with normal prices the dollars you get then will buy more than the dollars you invest with the Government to-day. Besides, the money you thus put aside for future spending is drawing interest for you every year until the Government pays it back.

IT IS GOOD BUSINESS, aside from every consideration of patriotism, at this time when a dollar is not a dollar, to SAVE MONEY and get good interest on it by investing in VICTORY LOAN, 1919.
